IDEAS strength, happiness, Buddhism, amazement, self-confidence

TIP Try this test to decide whether a word is a noun. Place the word in the blank in one of the following sentences. If the word makes sense in the sentence, then the word is probably a noun.

EXAMPLES I need a new ______. or I adore ______.
I need a new camera. I adore creativity.

Common and Proper Nouns

You may have noticed that some nouns begin with a lowercase letter while others are capitalized. A common noun names any one of a group of persons, places, things, or ideas and is generally not capitalized. A proper noun names a specific person, place, thing, or idea and is capitalized.

COMMON NOUNS friend, teenager, continent, dog, weekday, building

PROPER NOUNS Jordan Smith, Jamaal, Europe, Snoopy, Friday, Tower Bridge

EXERCISE A Underline each noun in the sentences below. Then, write C above the noun if it is a common noun, or P if it is a proper noun.

Example 1. Victor traveled across the ocean to Africa. [Victor names a specific person. Ocean names any one of a group of things. Africa names a specific place.]

1. Look at these photographs of my friend James, who is a relative of Victor. [Which words name any one of a group of persons or things? Which words name specific persons or things?]

2. Did the two men visit Madagascar, a large island near Africa?

3. Courage and curiosity are two qualities you will find in my friends.

4. Many different countries make up the large continent of Africa.

5. On his journey back to America, Victor sailed on the Princess.
Compound Nouns

A compound noun is made up of two or more words used together as a single noun. Compound nouns might be written as one word, as separate words, or as a hyphenated word.
